Mexico City, Mexico

See all of Mexico City's highlights including the National Palace, the Cathedral, the Crafts Market Fine Arts, Museum of Anthropology and History, Paseo de la Reforma, Roma and Condesa on this comprehensive tour.

Duration of tour: 9 hours

oThe Tour

In a city as big as Mexico's with its more than 22 million habitants, time and organization is vital to get the most of this city, and is not only big in size, city is also more than 4 thousand years of story; history in which we can submerge walking around the streets, parks, malls, archeological sites or visiting some of its almost 100 museums. Like every other big city, Mexico's a changing one that has been developing and adapting to the necessities and needs of the habitants, Avenue Paseo de la Reforma has testified a lot of these changes for more than 100 years, changes which today we can still observe. On this great avenue we can find many monumental sculptures that tell us different stories that have given it form and identity, such as the "El ngel de la Independencia" icon of Mexico's city, "La Diana Cazadora" and more recently the creation of "La Columna del Bicentenario". Some of the highlights you will get to see in this tour are National Palace, the Cathedral, the Crafts Market Fine Arts, Museum of Anthropology and History, Paseo de la Reforma, Roma and Condesa.
